2 Introduced by Representative Flory of Pittsford

3 Referred to Committee on Justice

4 Date: Jan 9, 04

5 Subject: Court procedure; conduct of trial; juries

6 Statement of purpose: This bill proposes to provide the Supreme Court with 7 the authority to: 1) eliminate the jury unanimity requirement for verdicts in 8 favor of a majority of at least 80 percent of jurors to constitute the verdict or 9 finding of the jury, and 2) reduce the number of peremptory challenges
10 allowed in civil and some criminal cases. The bill also eliminates trial by jury
11 for civil violations brought in judicial bureau, limits the number of times a 12 person can be called to appear before the court for voir dire, and permits the 13 court administrator access to the names and addresses of potential jurors
14 contained in various agency and departmental records.

15 AN ACT RELATING TO TRIAL BY JURY AND JURY SERVICE

16 It is hereby enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Vermont:

17 See P. 1a
~~Sec. 1. 4 V.S.A. § 953 is amended to read:~~

18 § 953. SOURCES OF NAMES

19 (a) The jury commission, in order to ascertain names of persons eligible as 20 ~~jurors, may consult the latest census enumeration, the latest published city,~~

See P. 16
~~Sec. 1. FINDINGS~~

The General Assembly finds that:

(1) The Jury Policy Committee of the Vermont Supreme Court has studied the issue of jury unanimity and recommended that verdicts by 80 percent of the jurors on a jury be permitted in civil cases.

(2) After hearing substantial testimony on the issue, the House Committee on Judiciary found no compelling reason to deviate from the longstanding requirement that jury verdicts be unanimous. It is therefore the Committee's conclusion that the laws governing jury unanimity should not be changed at the present time, either by statute or by rule.

(3) There may be circumstances in the future which would make it prudent to reevaluate the requirement of jury unanimity. If such circumstances arise, it is the Committee's understanding that the Vermont Supreme Court will reconsider the issue and make appropriate recommendations to the General Assembly.
